

di Rosa Photography Policy

Non-flash photography of objects in the permanent collection, taken in existing light, is permitted for personal, educational, non-commercial use only. Tripods and selfie sticks are prohibited. Photographs taken in the galleries or on the grounds may not be sold, commercially reproduced, or distributed without written permission from di Rosa.

Press requests

Please contact the Marketing & Communications Manager, below, with requests for existing imagery, or requests to photograph on site (for press purposes only).

Copyright

di Rosa is the copyright holder for all images of artworks in the di Rosa photo library. Reproduction of a di Rosa image without a licensing agreement will constitute an infringement of copyright.

Please note that the copyright for artworks in the di Rosa Collection may be shared with a third party. Requestors will be notified if additional copyright clearance will be required prior to proceeding with their request. It is the responsibility of the requestor to contact the third party for permission to reproduce the work of art where copyright is owned by a third party. di Rosa assumes no responsibility for any royalties or fees claimed by an artist or a third party.
