

ABOUT DI ROSA

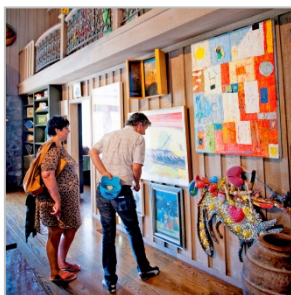

A nonprofit contemporary art center, di Rosa presents dynamic exhibitions and programs for all ages and houses the largest collection of contemporary Bay Area art in the world. A wide range of styles, media, and subject matter provides an overview of the creative energy and freedom to experiment that characterize this region of California. di Rosa features three galleries, a sculpture park, and a 35-acre lake, all located on 217 scenic acres in Napa Valley's famed Carneros region. For more information, visit dirosaart.org.

THE SITE

The GATEHOUSE GALLERY features contemporary exhibitions of work by Bay Area artists and provides views of Winery Lake. The gallery is open for drop-in visitors and is also where visitors check in for tours of the entire site.

The MAIN GALLERY presents modern and contemporary by celebrated Bay Area artists. Note: the Main Gallery is closed through summer 2017 for renovations.

The RESIDENCE GALLERY offers a glimpse into a private collector's world. A Napa County Landmark, this 130-year-old three-story stone building originally housed a winery and later became the home of collectors Rene and Veronica di Rosa from 1960-1996. Today it houses hundreds of works from the di Rosa collection, shown salon-style in each room of the house.

The SCULPTURE MEADOW is located on the north end of the property and stretches up to Milliken Peak, the highest summit in the Carneros region. A 1/3-mile trail winds past several dozen oversized outdoor sculptures. Access is restricted to the Outdoor Sculpture Tour (offered on the first Sunday of each month) and Nature Hikes to the top of Milliken Peak (offered May-October).
