

PHOTOGRAPHY POLICY

Visitors

Photography of objects in the permanent collection, taken in existing light with a hand-held camera, is permitted for personal, educational, non-commercial use only. Flash photography and the use of tripods are prohibited. Photographs taken in the galleries, residence, gardens and sculpture meadow may not be sold, commercially reproduced or distributed without written permission from di Rosa.

Professional Use

Photographers and members of the press should contact the Marketing & Events Manager, 707.226.5991 x34, or ann@dirosaart.org with requests for images of di Rosa events and exhibitions, and for permission to film inside the museum.

Copyright

The di Rosa is the copyright holder for all photographic transparencies and digital files of works of art in the di Rosa photo library. Reproduction of a di Rosa image without a licensing agreement will constitute an infringement of copyright.

Please note that copyright for some works of art in the di Rosa's collection may be owned by a third party. Requestors will be notified if additional copyright clearance will be required prior to proceeding with their request. It is the responsibility of the requestor to contact the third party for permission to reproduce the work of art where copyright is owned by a third party. di Rosa will provide whatever information it has available to assist with this process. di Rosa assumes no responsibility for any royalties or fees claimed by an artist or a third party.
