Jill Cole and Lauriann Delay Join Di Rosa Board

NAPA, CA – February 1 2011. di Rosa welcomes Jill Cole and Lauriann Delay to its Board of Directors. Both women bring impressive credentials and share a passion for di Rosa's mission to support the Bay Area's art and artists.

Jill I. Cole, Co-founder and President of Cole Martinez Curtis and Associates, has over 40 years of experience planning and designing some of the premiere hotels, resorts, clubs, and spas in the world. An avid collector of contemporary art, Cole has received numerous honors for her work, including the prestigious Platinum Circle Award, which recognizes exceptional achievement in the industry. Her work has been featured in several popular design publications and she is the author of California Interiors.

A Washington DC native, Jill lived in Los Angeles for many years before moving with her husband, Robert Levenstein, to Calistoga. Cole studied art history, languages and design at UCLA; the Academy of Fine Arts, Rome; and Chouinard Institute. Jill is also an active contributor to the field of interior design education and has taught in the Environmental Design Department at UCLA. A sophisticated traveler, Jill has lived in Italy and circled the globe.

Lauriann Delay is a partner in the investment management practice of The CovingtonDelay Group. Lauriann has spent more than 20 years working with the investment objectives of both individuals and institutional investors. She works with tax and estate specialists in developing wealth management strategies for her clients. Lauriann co-heads a team that advises a select group of financially successful families, private companies, entrepreneurs, endowments, and foundations.

Lauriann has served on the Board of Trustees at Mills College for 8 years, where she chaired the Investment Committee. She is also on the advisory board of the Lokey School of Business. Originally from New York, Lauriann and her fiancé, Anthony Robello, currently live with their four daughters in Marin. She is also a member of the Financial Women's Association (FWA) and CFA Society of San Francisco.
