Third Annual Halloween Event Returns to di Rosa with a Haunted House and Something for All Ages

Napa, Ca. (September 7, 2023) – di Rosa Center for Contemporary Art dares all ages to attend its Halloween Haunt on October 21 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Presale tickets are available to the public through September 21. Tickets will remain on sale at full price through October 21. “We have been overwhelmed by the interest in our Halloween programming, and we are excited to rise to the occasion.” Says Andrea Saenz, di Rosa's Director of Education and Civic Engagement. “di Rosa’s old stone residence (circa 1860) just beckons to be turned into a haunted house. We have surprises in store, and I can’t wait to see everyone’s reactions.”

Halloween Haunt is one of di Rosa’s bi-annual “di Rosa Day” festivals. In addition to the haunted house, the event features a hay bale maze, seasonal art activities provided by Guild, Napa, spooky eye spy, an art & makers market, a costume contest for kids, a photo booth, trick-or-treating, and food trucks. Ticket holders ages 21 and up receive two drink tickets that are good for beer, wine, or non-alcoholic beverages.

Presale Pricing through Sept. 21 is $35 for General Admission, $15 for Members, and $5 for Minors (ages 3-20). Pricing as of Sept. 22 will be $45 for General Admission, $30 for Members, and $10 for Minors (ages 3-20).

di Rosa is looking for local artists and makers to participate in their first art & makers market on October 21 during di Rosa Day: Halloween Haunt. Interested parties should contact Delisa Dodge at 707.226.5991 x40 or email delisa.dodge@dirosaart.org.

Live event volunteers and loaned Halloween decor are also needed. Those interested in either volunteering or helping with décor should email hugo.corro@dirosaart.org... if they dare!

ABOUT DI ROSA CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY ART
